

ROANOKE VIRGINIA

With a proud tradition of service spanning more than 140 years, Spilman Thomas & Battle, PLLC is a regional law firm with offices in North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Virginia and West Virginia. Spilman Thomas & Battle has a broad general practice, organized into two major departments: corporate and litigation.

As one of the region's largest law firms, we take pride in the diversity of our client base – one that includes Fortune 500™ companies with thousands of employees, as well as entrepreneurial and family-owned, small businesses.

Spilman opened its Roanoke office in 2007 with the goal of improving and expanding services to clients in Virginia and the Mid-Atlantic region. Upon its launch, Spilman offered the market a depth of experience and talent in such areas of law practice as wealth management, banking & finance, bankruptcy & creditors' rights, consumer finance, tax law and bond/public finance. In the ensuing years, the number of attorneys in the Roanoke office has grown through strategic hiring which has expanded and deepened the firm's practice in the areas of labor and employment law and general litigation. With all firm offices interconnected on a robust, secure technology platform, Spilman attorneys in Roanoke collaborate daily with colleagues across the firm on a variety of matters.

The Commonwealth of Virginia has routinely ranked high on lists of business-friendly states. For example, the annual review of the Best States for Business (by Forbes.com) ranked Virginia in the #1 spot in 2006, 2007, 2008 and 2009 and second overall in 2010. Within that climate, attorneys in our Roanoke office have substantial experience in advising, counseling and representing banks, localities, businesses and people in business.

The Roanoke Valley is a regional center for health care, transportation, finance, shopping and entertainment for more than a million people in the western region of Virginia and beyond. The Spilman office is conveniently located in downtown Roanoke, providing convenient access to court houses, banks, meeting facilities, public agencies, hotels, restaurants and other business support services.

Please contact any of the attorneys in the Roanoke, Virginia office to learn more about the services we provide.
