The West Virginia Society of Certified Public Accountants has made its 2013 Guidebook to West Virginia Taxes available on the Internet as an e-book that is available to the public, at no charge. The book can be accessed at the Society's website www.wvscpa.org/tax and at www.jimsturgeon.com.

The introductory materials and eleven chapters amount to more than 465 pages. Each is downloadable as a separate Adobe Acrobat PDF document.

The Guidebook incorporates legislative and regulatory changes since the 2012 edition was published. The 11 chapters and introductory materials that comprise the Guidebook were written, revised and updated by tax professionals who have years of experience in West Virginia state and local tax matters. These practitioners include Steven R. Broadwater, Victor Grigoraci, C. Page Hamrick, III, Kevin Highlander, John A. Mairs, Lydia S. McKee, David Phillips, Herschel H. Rose, III, and Dale W. Steager.

The Guidebook was edited by Dale W. Steager.

The West Virginia Society of Certified Public Accountants cautions that the Guidebook is not designed to eliminate the necessity of referring to the law and regulations for answers to specific problems, nor is it intended to take the place of the more detailed information available from other publishers. If accounting, legal, or tax advice or other expert assistance is required, the services of a competent professional person should be sought.
